

For me dance is the purest form of expression. Movement is the language I really speak.

My dance comes from a deep place.

I was once one of those good quiet Filipino children. My dance has made me Boisterous, loud and expressive about my culture and myself.

I love it now and I know

I always will.

-Dulce Capadocia

dulce's Sallet

interviewed by kathleen moloney photography by sarah wue